

Recognizing

CHINESE NEW YEAR GLOBAL GALA

WHEREAS, On February 12, 2006 at Flint Center in Cupertino, New Tang Dynasty Television (NTDTV) is celebrating the 2006 NTDTV Chinese New Year Global Gala; and

WHEREAS, As the first and only non-profit Chinese Television Station, NTDTV gives its viewers a truly independent, free of cost, objective source of information and quality entertainment; and

WHEREAS, The mission of NTDTV is to provide people with accurate and objective information to enrich their knowledge and lives; contribute to pluralism and free flow of information in Chinese language media; foster understanding between Chinese and Western societies and assist Chinese people outside China to adapt and assimilate to mainstream society; and

WHEREAS, NTDTV is composed of a team of committed individuals with a wealth of experience in television programming and other media, including publications and radio programs; and

WHEREAS, Among NTDTV's programming are human rights issues in China, the political climate in Hong Kong, the SARS situation in Hong Kong and Mainland China, ethnic Chinese settling in foreign countries and regular programming introducing American institutions and democratic societies' values.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED, that the City Council of the Town of Colma hereby recognize New Tang Dynasty Television (NTDTV) for their contributions to the community.

Set Forth in Appreciation this
Eighth Day of February, Two Thousand Six.

Helen Fisicaro, Mayor